President's Message

Greetings to all and welcome to February!

I write this month's message as the first "storm" of 2016 rolls in and am reminded how well we have fared this season. On the flip side, those who are dependent on winter weather have not had a great season so far. Please keep all of the local South Shore businesses in mind as we carry on through the year.

I am very excited for our February 10 meeting at the K-Ranch as we welcome Rob Henken of the Public Policy Forum to be our guest speaker, presenting the topic of public services consolidation. I am certain this will be a compelling presentation as we look at duplicative public services and taxation. Please RSVP early by calling the Chamber office (414-483-8615), emailing president@ssccwi.com or by visiting the website at ssccwi.com to do so!

Mark your calendars! The 36th Annual 128th Air Refueling Wing Civic Dinner Dance is approaching; it is Thursday, May 19 this year. Time flies and it will land here before you know it. Tickets can be purchased through the Chamber once they are available. The Annual SSCC Awards Dinner will be held Thursday, September 22 at the Pulaski Inn. More information on both will follow in due time!

I hope everyone's 2016 is off to a great start and I wish all nothing short of success. I look forward to seeing you at the February meeting on Wednesday the 10th at the K-Ranch.

Brian E. Williams
