To whom it may concern:

The Economic Development Committee of the City of St. Francis has named Associated Bank as “Business of the Year for 2017”.

Associated Bank has been in the City of St. Francis for many years. It has consistently supported various events and organizations within the City. Associated Bank has provided excellent service to their customers and is a great business in the City of St. Francis. Its continued commitment to the community is just one of the reasons the Economic Development Committee is recognizing Associated Bank as the 2017 Business of the Year.
